

Favshop — Devotional Product Trend & Listing Tracker

India marketplace research starter dataset | Checked/compiled 31 August 2026 | Amazon India + Flipkart

Purpose: Use this as a working catalogue for identifying devotional products worth sourcing, testing and listing. “Trending” is treated as a marketplace signal, not a guarantee of sales. Prices and rankings change frequently.

How to turn this into a daily product-research database

For each candidate product, record the following fields every 1–3 days during the testing period:

Field	What to capture	Why it matters
Marketplace	Amazon / Flipkart	Compare demand and competition.
Search keyword	Exact keyword used	Makes future checks repeatable.
Product title	Exact marketplace title	Useful for competitor tracking.
Seller / brand	Seller and brand	Helps identify private-label opportunities.
Price / MRP	Current price and displayed MRP	Supports margin calculation.
Rating / reviews	Rating + review count	Rough proxy for traction and maturity.
Sales signal	e.g., “bought in past month” if visible	Stronger demand signal where available.
Sponsored status	Sponsored / organic	Helps distinguish advertising from organic demand.
Variants	Pack sizes, colours, fragrances	Shows what customers can choose.
Fulfilment	FBA/FBM or marketplace fulfilment where visible	Useful for delivery/competition analysis.
Return risk	Low / Medium / High	Important for sourcing and margins.
Estimated landed cost	Product + packaging + freight + tax/fees	Core profitability input.
Target selling price	Your intended price	Tests gross-margin viability.
Gross margin	(Selling price – landed cost – marketplace fees)	Quick go/no-go metric.
Trend score	1–10	Internal prioritisation.

Amazon note

Amazon India’s public search pages are not consistently exposed to this research workflow, so Amazon product-level prices/rankings should be verified directly before sourcing. The Amazon-side rows marked “Amazon + Flipkart” are therefore opportunity hypotheses, not claims of current Amazon rank. Do not purchase inventory solely from this PDF.

Suggested priority for Favshop

1) Low-ticket electronic mantra bells / chanting boxes • 2) devotional gift sets • 3) bambooless/low-smoke incense and refills • 4) designer pooja thalis and bhog sets • 5) brass/LED/sensor diyas and kalash • 6) recurring consumables such as camphor, dhoop and cotton wicks.

Important: avoid product descriptions that make medical, guaranteed financial, supernatural or other unsupported claims. Verify trademark/copyright permissions for guru/celebrity names and images before listing.
